Dear Katy:

Dear Bill Woggon and Katy Keene:
Our Katy fan club is marvelous. Before anyone enters, they must help some needy person.

Now we are saving our money from dues to give to the March of Dimes. I am happy to be president of this wonderful fan club.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Katy,

Your fans here in Donaldsonville have looked into the future and one of the things we foresaw was what Sis would look like in her teens.

The above picture is how we saw that Sis would be a very pretty young girl. We sure hope you use it in your magazine.

Sincerely your fans from Donaldsonville!

DEAR KATY,

Dear Katy,

We would like to tell you more about our club.

We give our Place Cards and Sunshine Envelopes to the Oakwood Hospital in Dearborn, Michigan. On these Place Cards, which we give every month, is a picture of you and a space for the children to put their names. These are for the boys and girls to put on their trays. Another thing we give every other month are our Sunshine Envelopes. In these we usually have a sheet of jokes and cut-outs of you from our comics.

In our spare time we send games (we make) and money from our dues, to Rev. M.J. McKeirnan in Hong Kong, China. We are going to correspond with some of the children from his mission as pen-pals.

The officers of our club are: President-Andrea Commer-10; Vice-President-Carol Suda-12; Scribe-Gloria Commer-12. That's about all for now,

The Katy Keene Fan Club
6583 Horatio Street
Detroit 10, Michigan

Dear Miss Katy Keene:

In our club we trace pictures of you and your boy friends. We also color some pictures of you and your friends which are for our color contest!

we give prizes for the best tracing and coloring.

Dear Katy:

We started our club last year and I'm president. We have $33.31 in the club treasury.

There are 95 members in all; last year we had 32 members.

This is our emblem, a rocking K.

Sincerely yours,

Pres. Vincent Criscito (Age 12)
414 Waldo Street
New Castle, Pennsylvania

Dear Katy Keene and Bill Woggon,

Just recently we have started a Katy Keene fan club. We need a club house so we fixed up an old shack. We worked awful hard on it and made it into a respectable shack! We even bought a lock and key.

Our parents laughed at us when some boys tore it down before we locked it so you can see we have had a lot of trouble.

But through it all we remain fans of yours always!

We have a dog for a mascot and my brother is janitor.

Gail Thompson
Secretary
P.O. Box 51
Jesup, Georgia

Dear Katy,

Our Katy Keene fan club was trying to think up a club song. We haven't chosen a tune yet but here are some words in poem form:

"Katy Keene, Katy Keene,
She's a lovely pin-up queen,
Wows the guys, pops their eyes,
She's the star of every scene.

She's a lovely pleasing sight.
Movies, plays, modeling days.
She's a star that's shining bright.
That's Katy Keene."

Patty Streed, Pres.
Jamie McDougall, Sec.
614 3rd St., Procter, Minn.

Dear Katy Keene:

My name is Betty Brown. I am president of the Katy Keene fan club here in Charles Town, West Virginia.

Our meetings are every Saturday from 1:00 'til 2:00. Just before the meetings I always run down the street to see if any new Katy comic books are in yet!

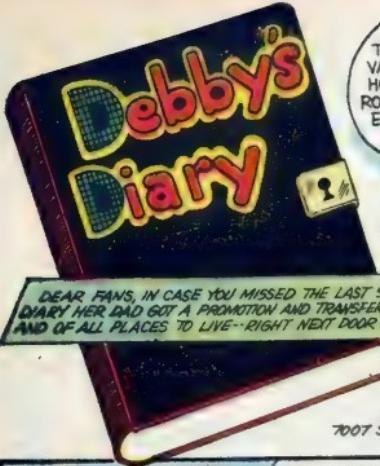

Betty Brown
South Church Street

Dear Katy,

We have read about your club in your terrific comic books and about all the wonderful things you and your club members do to try and make children, less fortunate than ourselves, happy.

When we go to the old age home we are planning to do a skit, sing, and try and get the folks there to join the fun. When we go to the polio ward we are planning to read, make paper dolls of you and Sis and the whole gang, and try and make them happy too.

Thank you.
Yours truly,
